

CERTIFICATION OF SURPLUS MATERIAL

OFFEROR CERTIFIES THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

a. Surplus Item Identification:

NSN:

NCLIN:

P/N:

Drawing Revision Letter:

Manufacturer:

b. Federal Supply Code for Manufactures (FSCM) marked on item per MIL-STD-130 _____

c. Quantity available for verification at dealer's facility _____

d. Item initially purchased from manufacturer under government contract number _____ as shown on original packaging.

e. Material was subsequently purchased as surplus from _____ (Manufacturer or agency)

f. History of items since initially sold as surplus by government or manufacturer:
Storage Location, Packaging, etc.) _____

g. The Surplus items offered fit the definition indicated below: (Check the appropriate definition)

() (1) NEW/UNUSED: Material not having been previously installed and not showing rust, corrosion or other evidence of deterioration from age, improper packaging or preservation, nor evidence of disassembly or reassembly, nor any evidence of reconditioning in any manner.

() (2) NEW AND RECONDITIONED: Material not having been previously installed and not showing rust, corrosion or other evidence of deterioration from age, improper packaging, or preservation. Material may only be reconditioned to the extent that gaskets, seals, o-rings, etc are replaced.

SOURCE OF RECONDITIONING: _____

SUMMARY OF RECONDITIONING: _____

() (3) NEW AND MODIFIED: Material not having been previously installed and not showing rust, corrosion or other evidence of deterioration from age, improper packaging or preservation. Material may be replaced in accordance with the applicable technical orders or specifications set forth herein for purpose of configuration update and/or modification.

SOURCE OF MODIFICATION: _____

SUMMARY OF MODIFICATION: _____

() (4) USED AND OVERHAULED: Material which has been previously installed in operational equipment but has been completely overhauled and reconditioned to the applicable technical orders set forth elsewhere herein.

SOURCE OF OVERHAUL: _____

OVERHAUL TECHNICAL ORDER: _____

ADDITIONAL PERTINENT INFORMATION:

SOLICITATION NO: _____

SIGNATURE: _____

NAME

COMPANY

TITLE

DATE